Carolyn Kent

RN, CEN

“Carrie was the most kind, caring and competent ED nurse you could ever work with. This was evident as manager, educator, mentor and friend, but most importantly if you were her patient. ”

- She was a humble leader with a heart of gold.
- Her family was the love of her life and would join her every Sunday for lunch at the hospital.
- She specialized in "Grammy Week" where her grandchildren were never sure what she would have in store.
- Sharing her love of her Lord and Savior with the homeless and on the mission, she will never be forgotten.
