

Rising Star Award

Description

This award recognizes an ENA member of fewer than five years who has made a significant contribution to ENA as exhibited by promotion of ENA as the professional organization for emergency nurses at the local, state, national or global level.

Requirements

- Nominee must be a new ENA member (fewer than five years from the date of nomination).
- Nominator must be a Chapter President, or any member of the council board.
- One narrative statement (addressing the four separate criteria listed below) written by the nominee's Chapter President, or any member of the council board.
- CV / Resume summary of the Nominee (please see pages 2 and 3 in the Achievement Award Handbook for a list of specific information needed).

Narrative Statement / Criteria

Please do not include the name of the nominee in the narrative statements.

- Each response must be limited to a maximum of 200 words.
- Develop responses in a word processing program such as Microsoft Word, use the WORD COUNT checker to ensure your responses are limited to 200 words, as well as the spell-check option. Then copy and paste responses into the online nomination form.

The narrative statement should address each criterion listed below:

1. Provide specific example(s) of the high level of enthusiastic engagement demonstrated by the nominee as an ENA member through the promotion of membership, program participation or educational role modeling for professional colleagues.
2. Provide specific example(s) of the nominee's actions that have resulted in significant contributions to ENA.
3. Provide specific example(s) of how the nominee advances / promotes ENA's Healthy Work Environment initiative to educate, support and/or advocate for a healthy and safe work environment for emergency nurses.
4. Provide specific example(s) of how the nominee has actively supported ENA's mission to lead the advancement of excellence and innovation in emergency nursing through research, education, resources, advocacy, and collaboration and readily shares their knowledge and expertise with others.
